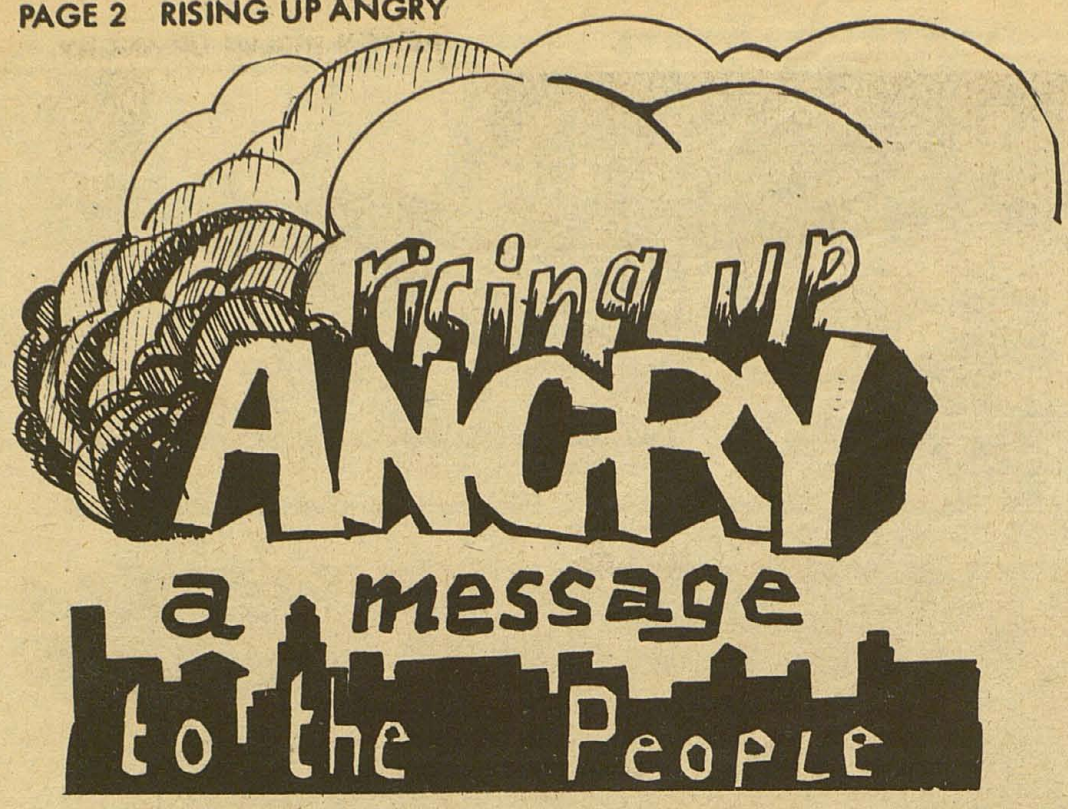
RISING UP ANGRY

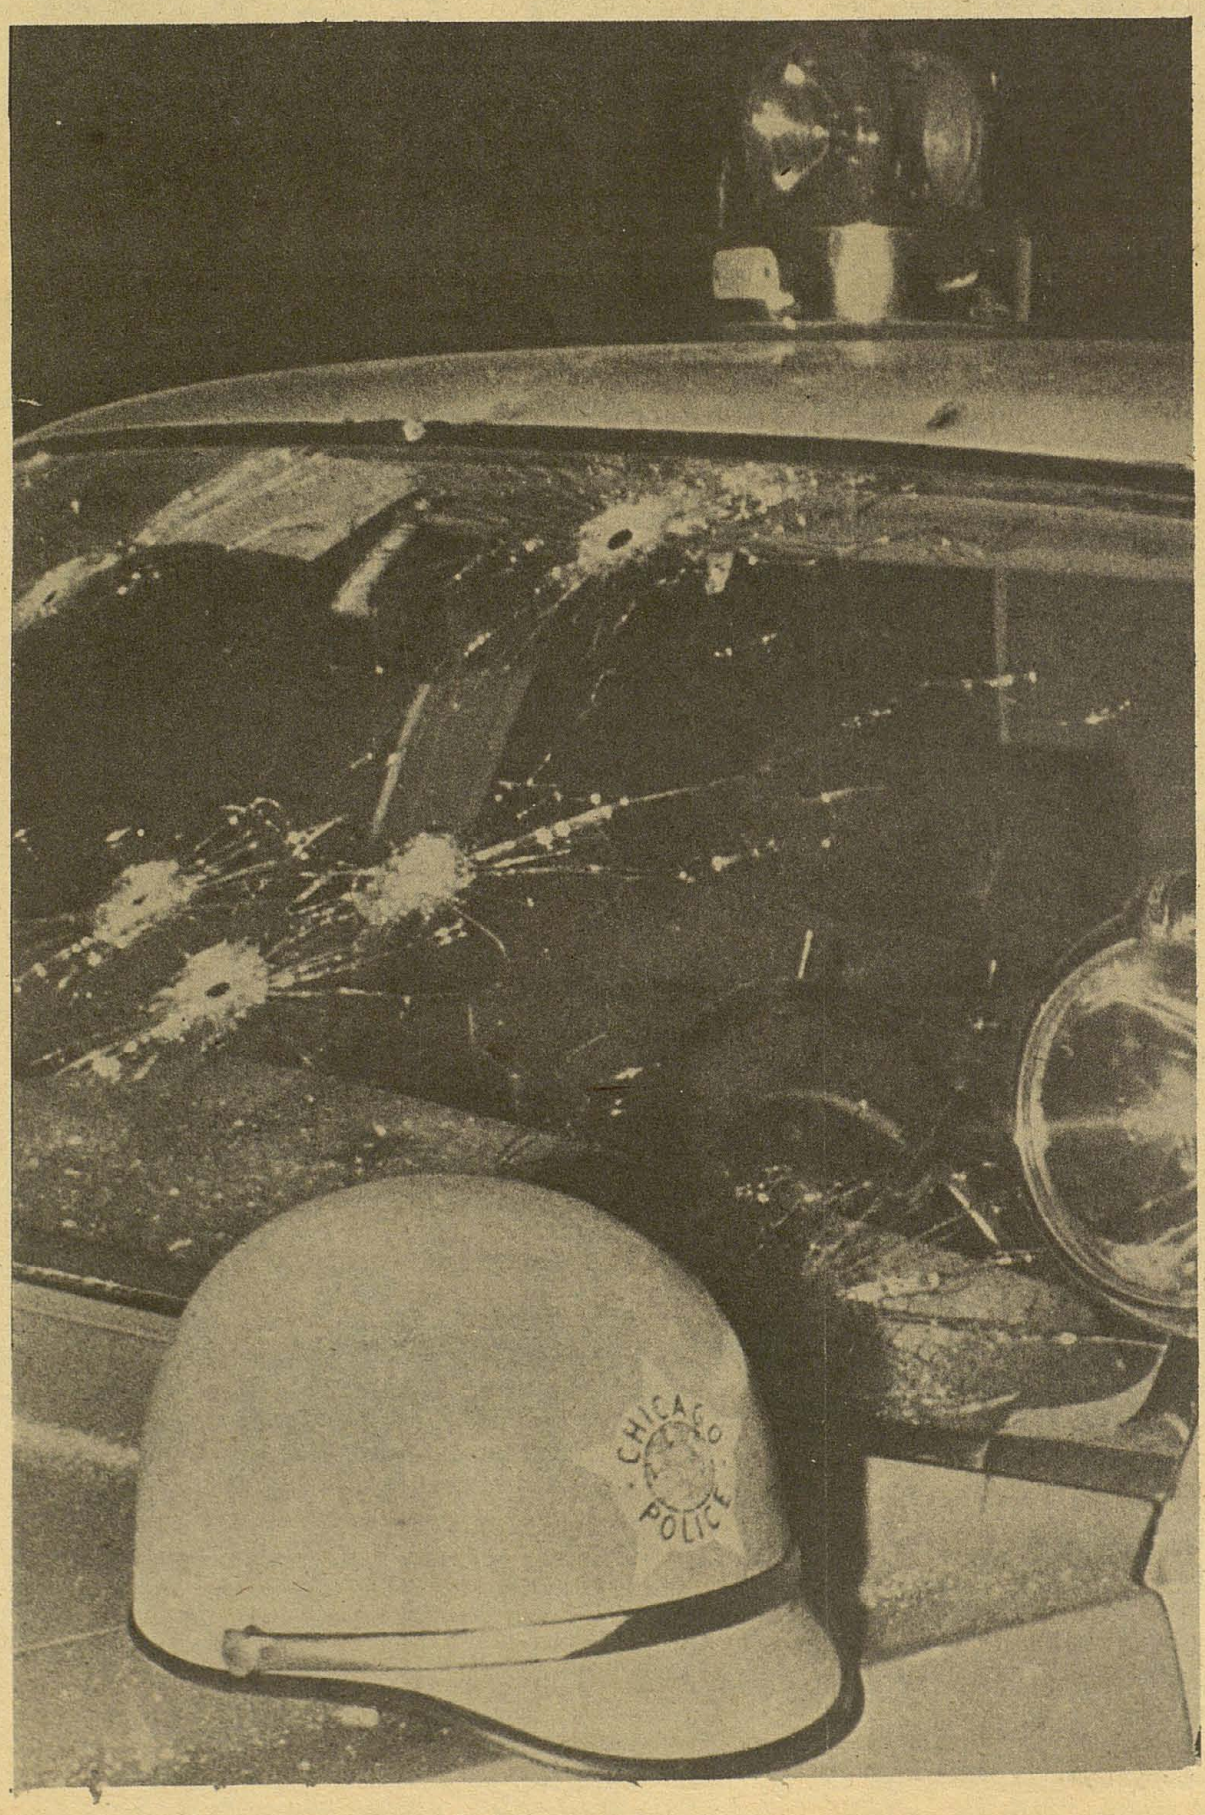
EARLY SUMMER 1970 | 25 cents | VOL. 1 NO. 10

TO LOVE WE MUST FIGHT



REVOLUTION

Revolution is not just a word about something going on somewhere else. Revolutionary struggle in America is now a reality. At a rock concert in Dan Ryan woods, grease brothers with old beefs were fighting among themselves. Plainclothes pigs walked brazenly into the crowd, only to retreat with smashed faces when the brothers and sisters ceased fighting among themselves, and moved to the higher level of fighting the real enemy. At Morse and Rainbow beaches, where pigs have been running amuck, hasseling, busting and beating people up, they have been met with rocks and bricks. In New York, the Weathermen, an underground revolutionary group, blew up a police station noted for its rigid security. Pig stations and imperialist businesses throughout the country have been bombed in recent months. On 79th street. the racist Nazi headquarters was bombed. Over at Barry and Paulina, the revolutionaries organized successful boycotts of businesses that hassel and exploit kids--a restaurant closed, and a bowling alley changed its manager and policy, In Englewood, a Chicago pig, one of the rulers' occupying troops in the ghetto met with a dose of revolutionary justice carried out by the people--the pig is dead. And out in California a ship bound for Nam had its engines sabotaged, causing $200,000 damage, forcing it back to San Diego for 8 weeks repair where the GI's and sailors are rejoicing. These are just a few of the many revolutionary acts carried out by brothers and sisters in the American monster everyday.



WHEN?

In just the last year, things have changed; we're moving up. Revolutionary ideas are spreading rapidly among brothers and sisters, and there is a growing intensification of actual revolutionary acts. But still some people hold back, afraid. They hold back because they are victims of that myth of pig superiority pushed on us all our lives by this racist, people hating government. Some who are afraid to fight the real enemy respond by fighting other people with the same problems; others retreat into a perpetual high, copping super buzzes in the park and praying that the pigs won't hassel them. Both fear the pig; both, so far, are afraid to fight for a revolutionary human life. So those brothers and sisters who fight other brothers and sisters rather than the real enemy, and those who try and hide from life with a super high, are guilty of helping the pigs, even though they may have great dislike for the pigs. Revolutionary brothers and sisters must help them to overcome their fears and fight to be free.

But this leads us to another problem, the problem of those among us, believers in revolution, who hold back on revolutionary action. They can't help others move forward when they themselves don't act. Some who dig the revolution seem to be waiting for someone to come out of somewhere and lead them, someone to give all the direction and all the answers. They leave the real struggle of building a new world to revolutionaries like the Black Panther Party or the National Liberation Front. They hold back because they think they don't know enough, aren't sure of what to do, or don't have enough people with them yet.

DO IT NOW!

Rising Up Angry says that the time has come to step up the struggle in the neighborhoods; the time has come to take that step forward, to do it, helping show others the way, helping give others the confidence and belief that we can move against the pig. Everyone who considers themselves to be a revolutionary, or on the side of the revolutionaries must stop waiting for someone else to do it; must stop putting things off; they must instead take care of necessary business! This means the initiation of local revolutionary action, carrying it out at whatever level a particular group of brothers and sisters is prepared to handle, and be getting ready for the next level. This means that a group of three or four brothers and sisters may not be ready to off a pig, but they can get a pig's tires, or the window of some local businessman chump. They may not be ready to burn a bank, but they can paint it, paint up the neighborhood, get those revolutionary slogans all over the schools and parks, on walls everywhere. By starting, wherever we are, at whatever we're ready for we will get the confidence and training necessary to get ready for the next stage.

Some people will do the basics--getting Rising Up Angry around neighborhood and factories, painting revolutionary slogans on walls, cooling out fights between the people, getting friends together to rap and see films with Rising Up Angry people. Others may do these basics and also begin to deal with chump businessmen and landlords, or retaliate against some pig whose been hasseling brothers and sisters on the corner. Still others, may be blowing up pig stations, burning businesses and banks and offing pigs.

We can't expect those people in the neighborhoods who've just come in contact with the revolution to stop their gang bopping, and wasting their heads all the time, unless some people move forward and act in a revolutionary way. Revolutionaries must set the example. Those among us who believe in the new man, in the new woman, in the new world, can't just talk revolution. The cutting edge is action, locally, at whatever level you're ready for, always studying, planing and preparing for bigger things.

OK, we've read it, now do it. Be cool, but do it. Do it now, because our fury, our humanity, unleashed cannot be matched by all the pigs, and all their gadgets. We are the people, revolutionary people who show the way!

NO HELP WANTED

There aren't any jobs this summer. And down at city hall Hizzoner the Mayor is shitting little bricks thinking about all those youngbloods out on the street with no jobs and no bread. No bread to go to school next year. No bread to buy a bike. Sometimes no bread to eat or pay the rent with. By the time the heat of August comes, a lot of the brothers and sisters are going to be rising up angry against the system.

Usually Daley can handle it. All he has to do is cover those couple of months when the brothers and sisters aren't locked up in the jails called schools. He can usually get the big businesses to hire a lot of young workers at rock bottom wages, just to keep them off the streets. Then the left-overs are hired to stay off the streets by the neighborhood youth corps at an even lower wage. Finally there are a few desparation programs like driving a bus load of kids out to O'Hare Airport each day for a free ride on an airplane over the city. Man, that's really keeping them off the streets!

But this summer is different. There aren't any jobs. The Mayor appointed his usual committee headed by Morgan Murphy, an officer of Commongreed Edison Co., and Thomas Murphy, president of the well paid, whites-only Building Trades Council. But while the committee lined up 36,000 jobs last summer, it was only able to find 8,100 jobs for this summer. And they were filled weeks ago. At most, 20,000 will be hired by the neighborhood job corps.

The reason that there are no jobs is that the capitalist economy is in a depression. The unemployment rate is the highest it has been in six years. 5% of the workforce is out of work. 10% of the non-white workforce is jobless. In Chicago, that means 133,000 men and women are out of work. In addition, another 200,000 are on strike or are locked out by their employers. It's hard times.

Why are there depressions? (Sometimes they are called 'recessions' so as not to make them sound so bad.) The news papers and commentators have all kinds of jive answers. Some say it's because it's a lack of investor confidence. Others say it's caused by a multitude of complicated factors, but the most common excuse is to blame it on the workers- "inflationary wage demands." In truth the answer is very simple, but in order to understand it we must first look at how this capitalist economy works.

The economy (the factory, the stores, etc.) are owned by a very small portion of the population, about 3%. This 3% manufactures, distributes, and sells goods by hiring the other 97% of us to do all of the work. Thus the Ford family will buy a lot of glass, rubber, and steel, and rent by the hour a few hundred thousand workers and turn out Mustangs. The difference between the selling price of the Mustangs and the cost of the glass, rubber, steel, and wages, is the Ford's profits. They are quite large. So large, in fact, that the Fords can't even spend it all. Besides, the Fords have to compete with the families that own Chrysler and GM. So most of the profits are 'reinvested.' That is, used to build more plants, buy more raw products, and rent more workers by the hour.

But the process cannot go on snowballing because the ability of all the factories to produce is so great that they turn out more than people have money to buy! Since it's stupid to go on making things you can't sell, and since capitalists are not stupid, they stop making these things. That is, they stop buying glass, rubber, steel, and most important, they stop renting workers by the hour. Companies only hire us so long as they can use our labor to make profits and not one minute longer.

Of course, they can't just fire all the workers at once. That would cause the workers to get angry and overthrow the system. So they lay off the victims of prejudice and discrimination first: blacks, Latins, women, and young people. Next, they try to keep profits up by cutting real wages. 'Real wages' are how much your wages can actually buy in goods and services. That means the boss will give you a 5 cent raise. But with inflation at 7% a year, if you make $2 an hour you need a 14 cent raise just to stay even. A 5 cent raise is actually a cut in real wages. Finally, the bosses will take advantage of disruptions like the truck drivers strike to lay off a bunch of workers and put the blame on another bunch of workers, in this case the Teamsters! The bosses kill two birds with one stone: lay off a bunch of workers which they were planning to do anyway, and throw the blame on one of the few groups of workers really fighting the bosses' wage cuts.

When you ask the boss, "How come you get all the gravy while we do all the work?" he always says, "I'm being rewarded for risking capital." Bullshit! He's not risking a damn thing. When things go bad, its us that take it on the chin and lose our jobs. A recession is the stupidest thing on earth. Empty factories. Layoffs. No jobs. Thousands of us eager to work. And so many things that need to get done, in order to make a better life for the people and better neighborhoods to live in. Yet nothing can happen at all because some rich bastard can't make a profit off it!

That's what it's about this summer. And the brothers and sisters are getting hip to it. Changing that system is one of the things that revolution is about.

brother malcolm

Malcolm X was born in 1925, just a few years before the terrible depression; terrible for Whites, worse for Blacks. His father, a Baptist preacher, was mercilessly slaughtered by a white racist group known as the "Black Legion".

During the following years of hardship, Malcolm's mother was crushed under the strain of raising, providing for, and protecting eight children when even white people couldn't even get a decent wage. Early in life, he saw the cruelties, the troubles of having to be Black in White America. As a teenager in Harlem, North America's largest ghetto, he learned to survive by hustling, pimping, peddling dope, and robbing. By the time he was 20, he was sentenced to 10 years in prison, when his life took a drastic change. He began corresponding with the head of the Black Muslims, Elijah Muhammad. Ashamed of his poor grammar, he began to read and finally write (copy) the entire dictionary, word for word.

With his new knowledge of words, he found for the first time he could understand what a book was saying. A whole new world was opened to him, and he read, and he read. Soon he was so filled with facts, the prison debaters were no match for him. He began preaching on behalf of the Black Muslims, telling the Black Man to get off his knees, get together with the Black Man's "True Religion". Once out of jail he was like a man on fire, going here, preaching there, and was the major cause for the large growth of the Muslim religion in America. He was on radio and TV, and newspapermen followed him constantly.

After making a statement on the death of President Kennedy, Elijah Muhammad suspended Malcolm for 90 days. This was due largely, however, to mounting jealousy in the upper echelons in the Black Muslims. So, Malcolm X decided to visit the religious shrine of the Muslims the world over, which is near Mecca. There, for the first time in his life, he saw fellow Muslims who were White, worshipping the same God, loving their brothers and sisters without seeing any racial differences. Coming from the United States, he had never before been able to meet a white person without being suspicious or resentful. In the true Muslim world he shared brotherly love with many blond haired, blue eyed brothers who never gave a thought to his race or complexion.

Upon returning to America Malcolm officially split with the Black Muslims, starting his own organization, called the Organization for Afro-American Unity. He said that Black people have been divided and taught to hate each other and even hate themselves. Before Black people can change anything, they must be united. Malcolm advised white people who asked him what they could do to work with their own people, to combat racism in their own ranks. He has said: "It isn't the American White man who is racist, but it is the American political, economic, and social atmosphere that automatically nourishes a racist psychology in the White man. The American society makes it next to impossible for humans to meet in America and not be conscious of their color differences."

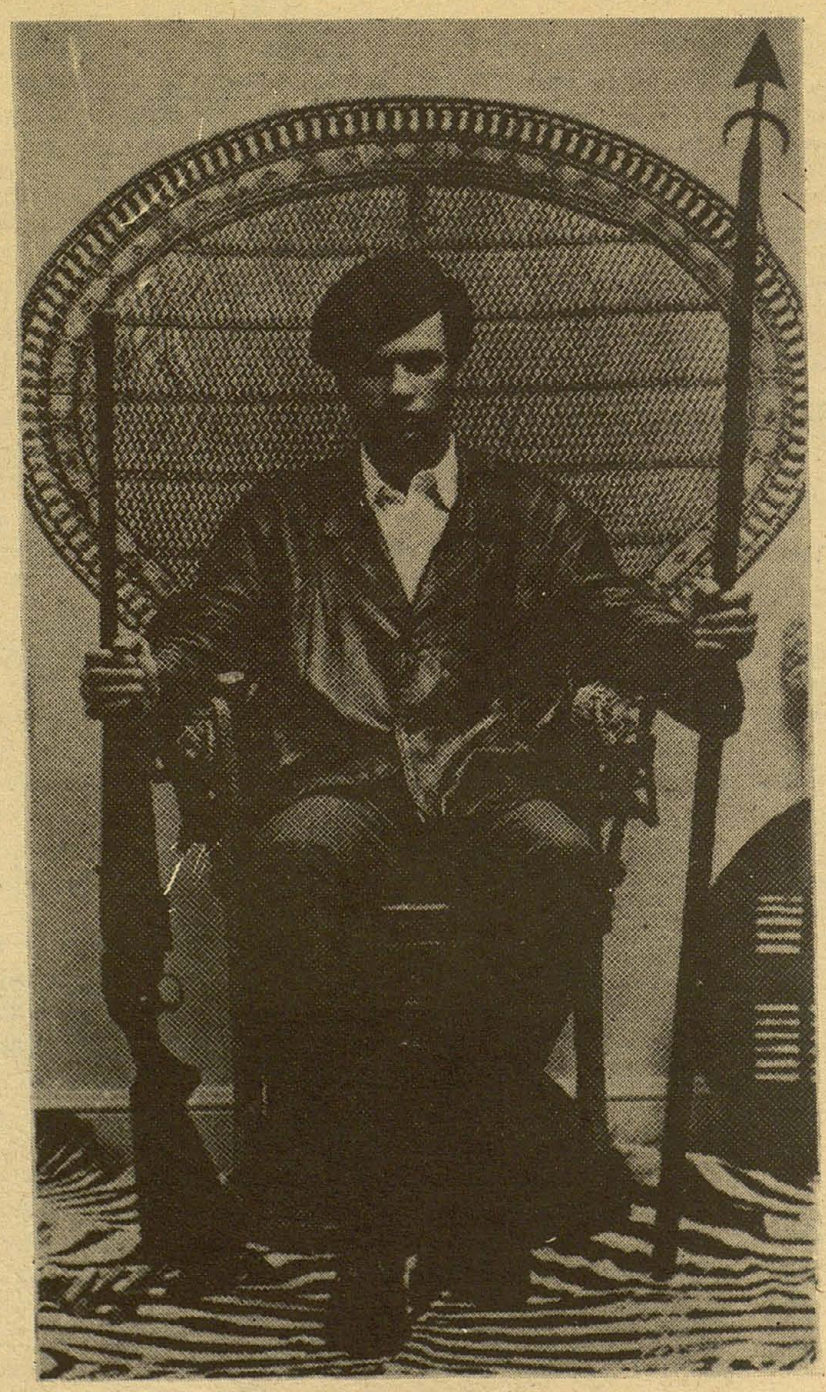
Malcolm X
May 19, 1925 – Feb. 21, 1965

"They've always said that I'm anti-white. I'm for anybody who's for freedom. I'm for anybody who's for justice. I'm for anybody who's for equality. I'm not for anybody who tells me to sit around and wait for mine."

The white press always worked to trick Malcolm into saying something to make him a scapegoat for the rioting and violence. They wanted to link his name always with violence. "I am for violence if non-violence means we continue postponing a solution to the American Black man's problem, just to avoid violence. I don't go for non-violence if it also means a delayed solution. To me a delayed solution is a non-solution. If it must take violence to get the Black man his human rights in this country, I'm for violence exactly as you know the Irish, the Poles, or Jews would be if they were flagrantly discriminated against. I am just as they would be in that case —and they would be for violence, no matter what the consequences, no matter who was hurt by the violence."

The press defined the issue as violence versus non-violence. It should be freedom versus slavery. If violence is used it is started by those preventing freedom.

Malcolm was making a lot of sense to a lot of people—black and white. The government realized that Malcolm was a great danger to the status quo. So Malcolm X was shot to death.



HUEY P. NEWTON

Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense and founder of the Black Panther Party followed the teachings of Malcolm and put the words of Malcolm into revolutionary practice. Huey is returning to the street again after spending two years in prison. Right On! Revolutionary people all over the world welcome Huey back as leader and example to all the people.

PIGS BUST 5 ON PHONY RAP

From groovy to tragedy.

On one groovy night five brothers and sisters were riding along a lonely road having a dynamite time. Naturally, the pigs couldn't dig this and put the lights on them, trying to bust them with something that wouldn't stick.

They also frisked and searched the people and the car. They found some lively material for smoking. So instead of peace signs, the brothers and sisters now wear chains put on them by fascist pigs.

Only one of them knew that the stuff was there and he tried to tell this to the pigs, but all his words fell on deafened ears.

Brothers and sisters, we do not have the means to get someone to make them hear!!!

Can You Help Us?!!

BACK OF THE YARDS

The Brotherhood of Snakes from the Back of the Yards who travel through all neighborhoods, busted up a pig mobile at 43rd and Paulina (near Davis Sq. Park). We all escaped after putting out his windows.

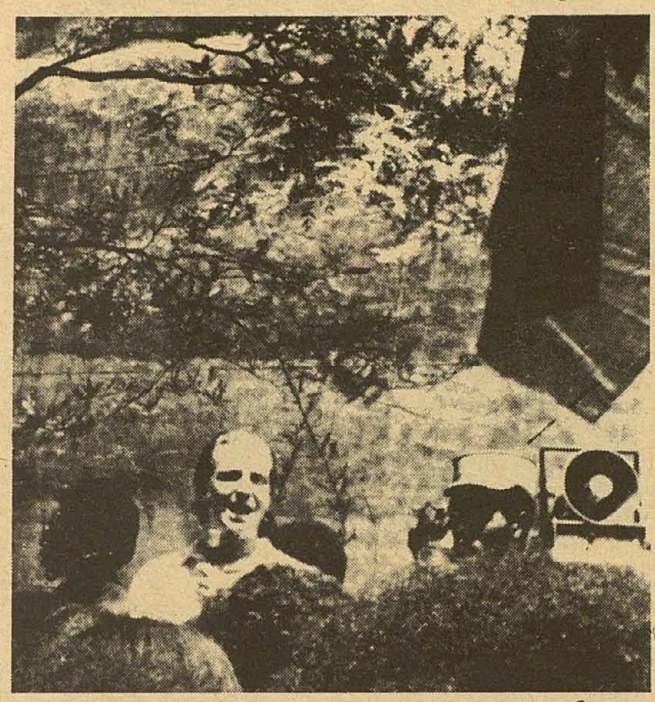
It happened when 11 brothers were standing on the corner, when a squad pulled by and Bob Stewart and his partner in Crime, the Duke, gave the pig the finger. The pig jumped out of his car for a bust. So Stewart and the Duke ran through a gangway and the pig followed. Poor pig. Maybe next time he won't leave his car alone.

(This story is true only the names have been changed twice to protect the quilty.)

End the Pig! All Power to the People!

CHI WEST--ARMITAGE & CICERO

The brothers and sisters around the neighborhood have been really cool about Rising Up Angry. They've been digging up on the past few issues. There's been no gang bopping for the last few months. We've been keeping it cool but the pigs have been giving us a hassel for the past month. A lot of people have been getting busted. We are getthings together over the summer. More power to all brothers and sisters of the revolution.



BROTHER MIKE RAPS--FREE BOBBY

Brother Mike James of Rising Up Angry spoke at the Free Bobby Seale Rally at the Federal Building on June 8th. "When we started Angry we started with an idea, and that idea is revolution; we set out to prove that not all white people are honkie chumps like Hanrahan, Mitchell, Agnew and Nixon. Angry's doing that, and we look to Chairman Bobby and Huey for inspiration. Angry recognizes that blacks in America are the vanguard of the revolutionary struggle here, that the Black Panther Party is the vanguard of the Black community and that Bobby and Huey are the leaders of the Black Panther Party. So we're here to see about Bobby and we're going to be seeing about Huey, because they are our leaders."

Several days later a new revolutionary, Jesse Hampton Nathanial William Floyd James, was born to Mike and sister Stormy. Right On! Power to new born revolutionaries.

SOUTHWEST SIDE--DAN RYAN WOODS

On June 7th, Bogan jr. college sponsored a rock concert. Rising Up Angry had been turned down for a concert in the same woods. Anyway, all was mello --grease, freaks, blacks. Some grease got into a hassel with each other, and the plainclothes pigs tried to hassel everybody. Some one screamed on them, called them pigs, said pigs ain't busting our people. So the pig ran after someone he thought had called him a pig. Brothers and sisters from Angry, 95th and 69th stopped him and everybody got in on it. Pigs backed out, beaten and bloody.

The people were right on. They moved from fighting each other, to fighting the real enemy. Pigs bleed. The change was nice, and will become the new thing.

CLARK AND DEVON

The TJO's have split up, C and D and the Foster Boys are back on their own. And the pigs are running amuck, messing over the people. But....

After a long cold winter we're back on the corner again, and this time with a different outlook for the summer. A mass revolutionary movement on the far north side. Wall painting, organizing, and getting together. It'll be hard, but revolution doesn't come on a silver platter.

MORSE BEACH

On Monday, June 15, the pigs were really hasseling people up here like busting them for just hanging around. They got one brother on a phoney suspicion of robbery, but little did they know that this brother wasn't into passively being taken in. When they weren't looking, he bolted from the pig car. But the pigs caught him and started beating him up. Watching a brother getting messed over pissed us off and so rocks started to fly. Then out of nowhere, 20 squad cars pulled up and started vamping on people everywhere. When these fascist punk pigs moved in, one of the brothers grabbed a pigs club and copped him on the head. That night the pigs busted 7 of us and beat them up at the station.

The next night, there were about 125 of us there sitting around rapping and playing music. We knew we had to get back at the pigs for the night before, so when the pigs came, we yelled and threw some rocks, Finally some people from Rising Up Angry and from the beach smashed the back window and tail lights of a pig car. Then everyone began bombarding the pigs. When the pigs started chasing us, we broke up into small groups for protection and ran. Later we walked back and everything was cool.

The next day, some of us asked Angry to bring more people up. So 60 brothers and sisters from Rising Up Angry showed up. When some of the peace freaks checked Angry out, they got real uptight. They didn't like people yelling at the pigs. So, there were a lot of raps and debates and finally, the peaceniks split. What those peace freaks were into was being down on the pigs pushing them around, but being afraid of fighting back. Most of us at Morse Beach weren't afraid and did fight back. That's right on!

And what we learned is that any neighborhood park, beach, or schoolyard doesn't belong to one group of people--it belongs to us all. And if the pigs fuck with any of us, then all of us will fuck with them. That's what its about and that's how we get together to fight the real enemy at Morse Beach.

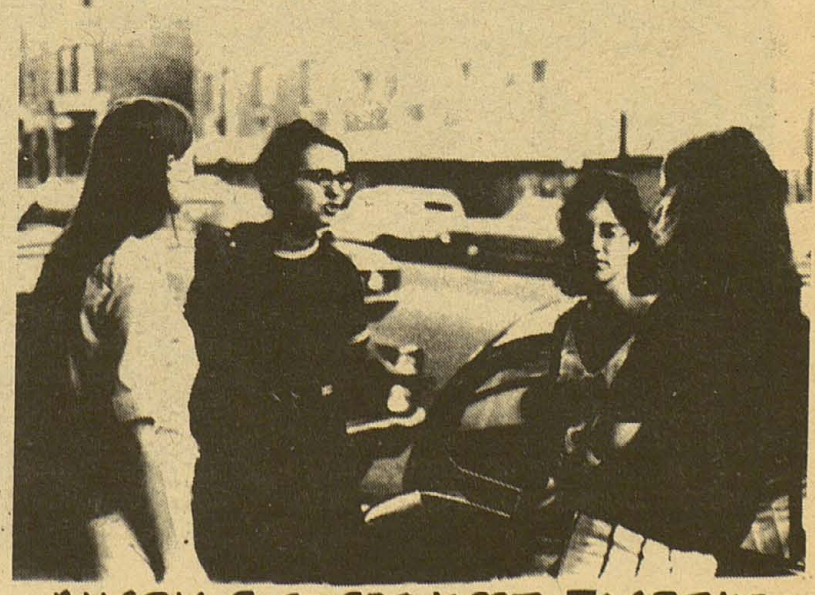
Power to the brothers and sisters who liberate their turf!

YOUNG LORDS ORGANIZATION

Nowhere in this city do people get decent medical care. The Young Lords Organization and other revolutionary groups are taking action to change this situation. They have started a free health center and are moving for changes in Grant Hospital. Here's what happens when the people move to get their rights.

On Monday June 15, forty people went to Grant Hospital to begin the second round of negotiations with the Board of the hospital. When we arrived, we were met at the door by rent-a-pigs and told we could not enter the building. We explained that we had made previous arrangements (by phone) to meet at Grant at that time and occupied the corridor outside the conference room where we met last. We waited until 9 PM. The Board of Grant Hospital did not even send a hireling down to explain anything to us. Grant is afraid of the Emeterio Betances Health Center, because we treat people for free. By refusing to negotiate with us, Grant shows their contempt for the people.

We must not allow Grant Hospital to continue to practice racism in Lincoln Park. We cannot allow Grant to ignore the health needs of the people.



ANGRY SISTERS MEET TOGETHER

ALL POWER TO THE BROTHERS & SISTERS who

LATIN KINGS ORGANIZATION

Recently a lot of meetings have been going on with other groups in and out of the community. We believe that this is happening because maybe these groups are tired of fighting against each other, or they have realized that the Pigs are the pigs, and we're being kept oppressed.

We understand that a lot of brothers have been killed in the streets for nothing. Well, maybe because of the pride in your name or for the color of your sweater or berets. But, look at it this way: the brothers that have been killed never really knew why. He never knew how the fight started, and now they lay six feet under, never remembered again, because the people will just say, "Fuck it. Another gangbanger, pothead or junkie," that just got killed. They'll say this because you're doing something unconstructive, and the system is laughing at you.

I wonder how many brothers and sisters really know why there's an attack on people like the Lords, Panthers or Patriots, who serve Free hot breakfasts, Free Clinics, etc, etc. Well it's because they're doing something the system was supposed to be doing. They talk about changes and the liberation of all oppressed people regardless of race or color. This really blows the Pigs' minds, because it's true and it takes beautiful people like them to make us realize it's time to stop these insane killings and point the barrel of the gun the opposite way.

Take a look at what happened to the gangs in New York. Drugs were poured in their communities, co-ops were set up, the Pigs let them get strung out and the brothers were so busy getting high, that gangs vanished and junkies came into existence. This is one way the pig structure will try to divide us. But, if we all get together to fight the real enemy, we can prevent this, and other incidents like this which may weaken and destroy us and our liberation struggle!

FULLERTON & KEDZIE

Brothers and sisters are digging the revolution. Some brothers painted slogans—RISING UP ANGRY, POWER TO THE PEOPLE, OFF THE PIG—on Darwin school. The next day the school had painted over all the signs, obviously afraid that the younger brothers and sisters would dig the revolution instead of Leave it to Beaver bullshit.

The pigs, two 14th dist. dicks in particular, stole 50 copies of RUA from one brother, and some other pigs stole some grass from some brothers and then busted one when he told the pig not to get too high on grass stolen from the people.

We're getting it together.
POWER TO DARWIN CITY!

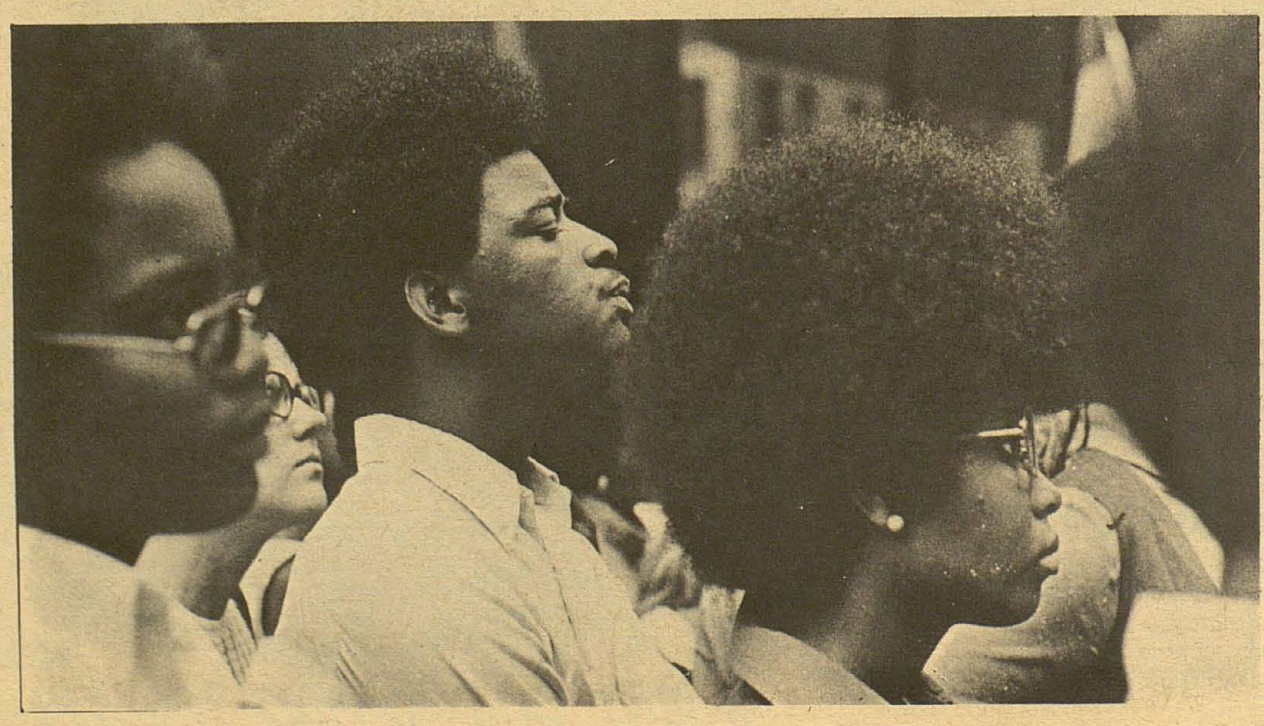
RAINBOW BEACH

With the summer here there's been pig harrassment nightly at Rainbow beach. Last week some brothers and sisters were playing Frisbee in the beach parking lot (because pig Daley can't find any bread to light up our parks). When traffic went by the people moved aside and then continued their game. Then about 9:30 PM two plain clothes pigs pulled up and walked around checking people out and bullshit. When they came toward the group of Frisbee players they told them to stop because they were obstructing traffic. But there wasn't a fuckin' moving vehicle in sight! When Brother Sam made a comment about this, they handcuffed him and charged him with disorderly conduct. A sister threw the Frisbee and was also busted for disorderly. Other brothers and sisters collected their bail within five minutes and headed down to the station after the paddy wagon. The next night, our people were ready. When the park closed at 11 PM, a sister drove through the wooden horse they had up as a barricade at the entrance, and some brothers stoned a pig car, smashing some windows.

We're getting an education from the pigs...they close the parks at 11 PM because they do serveand protect "pig" property and that's all! That is our beach, the people's beach and Rainbow's people along with others are now aware of who the real enemy is! We are uniting and fighting the pigs. All power to the brothers and sisters who are fighting to keep their turf! Off the pigs! Right On!!!

HOLLYWOOD & RIDGE

There's always alot of trouble with the pigs up here. The worst example of how these mad dogs work is the case of Bill Martin and Stan Murphy. They were on their way home one night and decided to cut through the alley. When they got in the alley these two pigs (who hasseled them earlier) stopped them and shot Bill Martin in the arm. Then the pigs busted a basement window so it would look like the brothers were trying to break into someone's crib. Down at the Summerdale pig station the pigs beat Murphy up in the basement. It all ended up that no charges were being pressed against Bill or Stan. Dig it! Bill has a fucked up arm and Stan was badly beaten for nothing. Next time the pigs mess with us, they won't slide.
OFF THE PIGS!



KILBOURN PARK GAYLORDS

We think that the jagoff pigs around our neighborhood are a bunch of assholes. They take our damn beer and guns, chase us out of our park with bats and shoot at us. The fucking pigs keep all our beer and guns because they're too cheap to buy their own guns and beer. Let's face it, the pigs are cheap sons of a bitches.

They have no right trying to throw us out of our fucking park. It's here so we're gonna stay in it. I think that ass Daley should do something about this. Like getting our guns back and our beer. Otherwise he should make sure the pigs don't keep the guns to shoot at us, them fucking assholes. Something better be done or there's gonna be problems between us and the jagoff pigs.

CHICAGO INDIAN VILLAGE

In the past couple weeks the Indian Village at Cubs park has grown 10 times bigger. Indians from all over the city have moved in to support the movement growing there. This week they took on the Board of education, demanding honest and fair treatment of Indians and their history in school books. They also demanded that the schools stop discriminating against Indians.

Now they're starting to organize Indians in buildings around the neighborhood—to fight pig slumlords. They're feeding dinner to 150 people every night at their outdoor kitchens and starting an organization to serve the needs of all Indians and fight all enemies that get in the way of their fight for unity and freedom. The pigs have stopped their oinkingfor a while, anyway, because the Indian Village has the support of all the PEOPLE in the community.
RED POWER TO THE INDIANS! THE PEACE OF SUBMISSION IS NEVER FINAL!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

CHICAGO PARENTAL

Some of the Rising Up Angry people came up again and layed some papers on us. The counsellors who were around while we were playing ball were cool. Then Karlin, the superintendent creep, came by and put the papers back over the fence. But we got 'em back in after he split. All kind of brothers in here—Black, White, Puerto Rican & Mexican—gonna be into a lot of revolutionary stuff when we get out.

UPTOWN & 55th & JUSTINE

Even though a lot of us are getting hip to the revolution, there are still some reactionary chumps running around our neighborhoods. What we're talking about is those racists who play right into the pigs hands by fighting people because of their skin color. Recently a couple of shootings have taken place—whites shooting blacks—at 55th & Justine and in Uptown. White people taking out their frustrations on blacks is a drag and plays right into the pigs' hands. As long as the capitalist pigs keep us fighting each other over crumbs, they don't have to worry about us getting together to take this country back for the people. Dig! Black people are leading the revolution in this country. And what we've got to do is unite the people, not divide them. It is up to those revolutionary brothers and sisters to educate the racists about the need to get together and fight the real enemy. And if these pig like racist chumps don't get hip to it, it's up to us to deal with them. All power to all the people! Through unity there is strength!

Sometimes we find ourselves sitting alone feeling put down and backed in a corner about one thing or another that is messing up our lives and the lives of our friends. The problems usually stem from financial trouble or double trouble (that's trouble with a guy). If we think about it, and we don't have to very long, we can see that the system of government that we are trying to survive under controls, in one way or another the things that are causing our problems. We can relate to revolution because that's the only way we are going to get the changes we need. And the revolution isn't just out there in some far away place--it's right here. But, too often, when we try to actively take part in making it happen, double trouble steps in. A man, a brother, who knows we have to make it happen, stands between a sister and the pig because he's been taught (as we all have) that men take care of everything and women stay home. Women's liberation is about changing that fairy tale to the true story of how women and men will equally fight to make a revolution and how women and men will work together equally after the revolution in a new society.

The newspapers and TV have shown women's liberation as something apart from our lives and apart from the world wide revolution going on. But some of the best examples of women's liberation are happening here in Chicago and across the country.

Women's liberation is the sisters in High Schools who fight the pig teachers and administrators when they try and enforce their bullshit school rules.

Women's liberation is fighting for the right to an abortion while brothers and sisters back you up --even if your parents say they want you to have the baby. (Brothers and sisters in one neighborhood in Chicago helped raise money for a sister's abortion.)

Women's liberation is the mothers of 3 black brothers in Soledad prison in California who are fighting for the sons' freedom. The brothers, like a whole lot of others we know, were railroaded through prisons and reform schools all their lives. Now the pigs are accusing them of killing a prison guard, when in reality the prisons and schools have been trying to kill their spirits all their lives. These mothers are now fighting a battle for the freedom of all political prisoners.

Women's liberation is the fighting sisters of the Black Panther Party---such as Erika Huggins who has been jailed, her husband murdered and her child kidnapped by the courts while she was in jail, but who still fights on for her people. And other sisters and brothers of the Panthers who serve the people with their medical and free food centers.

Women's liberation is an Indian woman who moved with her children into a teepee in Cubs Park as a protest against her landlord and the pigs who evicted fer for being on a rent strike. It is also the 60 women, men and children who have moved out there to support her and the struggle for housing fit for human existence.

Women's liberation is the sisters who fight back when their husband or boyfriend tells them to shut up and not read and talk about revolution--or not to get together with other sisters to give each other strength.

An example of liberated women that we all look to is the Viet Cong women, some separated from their families, some in prisons, some with a gun in hand and a child on their back, fighting the U.S. Imperialist pigs who have sent troops to invade their homeland.

Women's liberation is happening wherever sisters are getting together with other sisters and brothers who love their people and fight the real enemy!!

It's payday, 90°, and hot as hell. You're waiting in line for your pay check and it almost seems worth the bullshit that you went through all week. You're next in line and thinking about how you're going to spend the couple of bucks left over after the bills are paid. Finally, it's your turn. You say your name and serial number. The cashier nods mechanically and instead of recieving your pay you get an American Flag and an autographed picture of Nixon.

Think you'd be pissed if that happened? Well, it's happening and dig it, the black guy standing behind you in line didn't even get a flag.

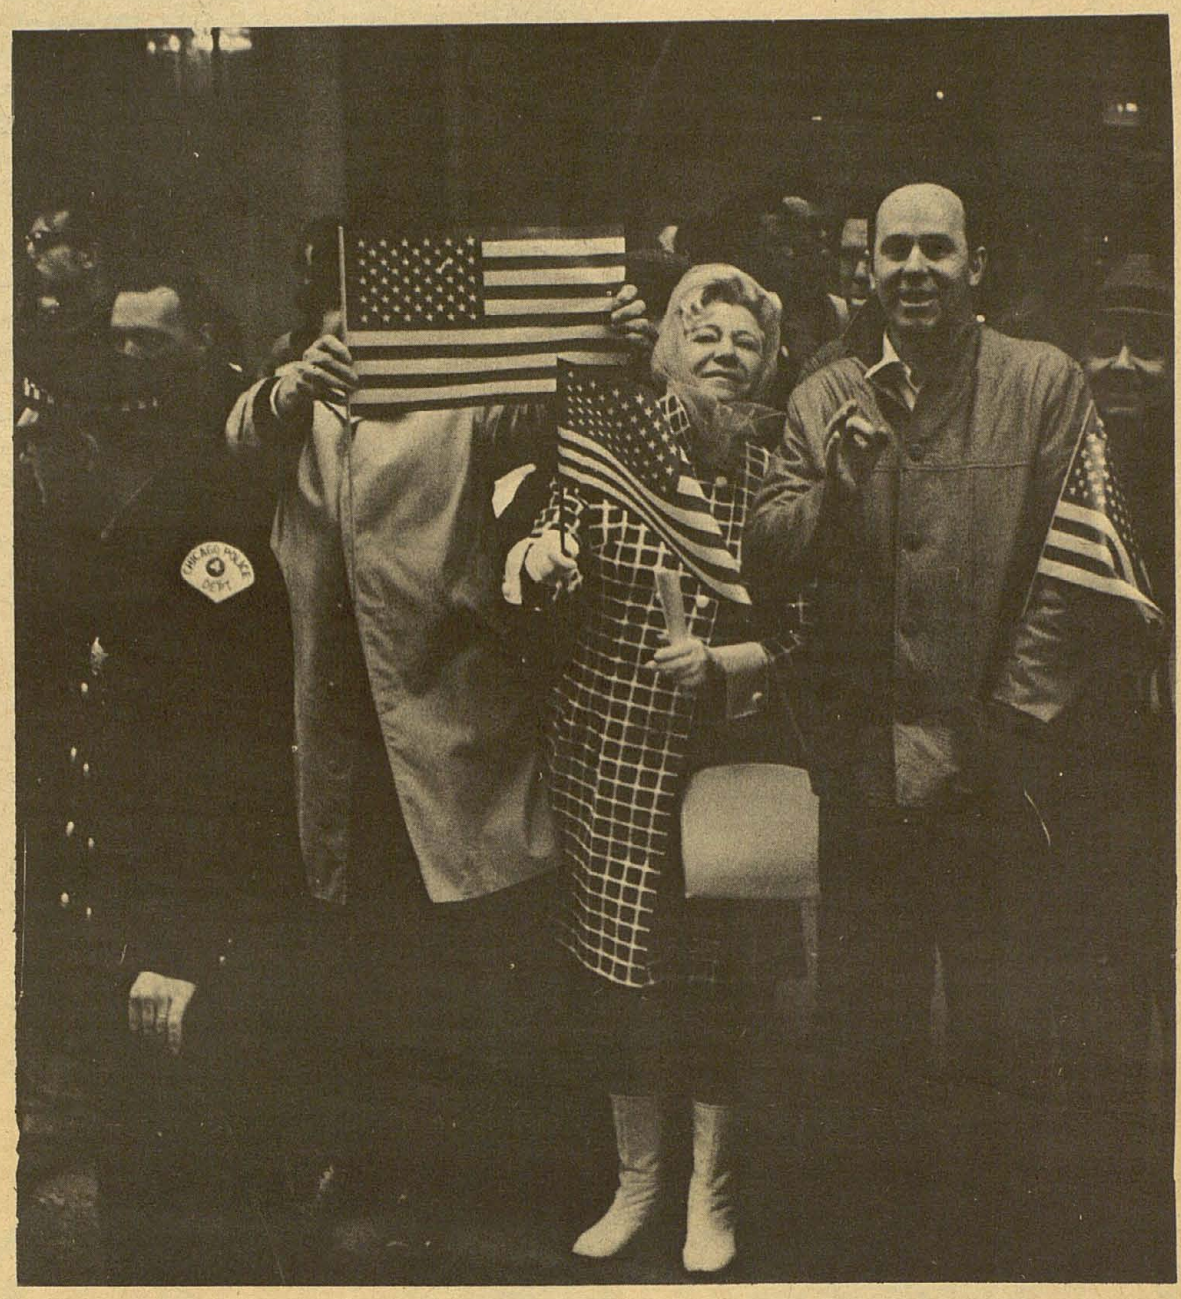
NOW?



It's happening on a much larger scale. Our lives have become increasingly more miserable and the only thing the government has to say to us is that we might be poor, we might be living a hard life, we might be barely surviving, or maybe not surviving at all, but we shouldn't complain because we're Americans and America is the greatest country in the world. We should be happy and honored to be oppressed by the greatest oppressors in the world. Right on, put an American flag decal on your car until the finance company takes it away--decal and all.

Pigs and Super Pigs like Nixon, Agnew and Wallace always talk about patriotism and anti-communism. They follow in the footsteps of pigs before them and they take the old fascist tactics and put them into a new modern form. In the early 50's there was a pig named Senator Joe McCarthy. He developed ways of keeping the people down that are still used today. One of these tricks was red-baiting. That is, to accuse people of being un-American, unpatriotic, or an agent for a foreign country. McCarthy built up a fear of communism. The government told people that Russia was going to attack, that communism is this evil disease spreading across the world. They told us that the Russians had spies everywhere in the U.S. and that these spies were poisoning the minds of the American youth. This provided an atmosphere which made it possible for pigs in the government to do whatever they wanted and say that they did it to stop communism. Radicals were thrown out of the labor unions, teachers with new ideas were blacklisted, radical moviemakers were blacklisted. Even Pete Seeger was banned from television for ten years. Anyone who wanted change was called a communist and people were so worked up and paranoid they started seeing commie spies coming out of the woodwork. Anything that didn't benefit the rich ruling class and the government was considered a Russian plot. Thousands of people were thrown in jail in the "witch hunts." This scared most people into keeping their mouths shut. The beginning of the silent majority. Silent because the people knew if we opened our mouths we would be taken out of our homes and thrown in jail. The word patriotism came to mean a blind loyalty to the pigs who are keeping us down.

Red baiting is when they answer our questions with, "That's communist and un-American." That way they never have to answer the question. To that we say, "It might be communism, but it's also the truth and we'll make it American." Nixon, Agnew, and Georgie Porky Wallce use red-baiting to attack the revolution. They not only play on people's fears of foreign countries, but they especially use racism. Divide the people. They build hate which grows from fear. And they trick us into hating and fearing each other instead of the real enemy--the government that runs this country.

If Wallace represents the common people, why is it that poor people of Alabama, even poor white people of Alabama have it worse than poor people of almost every other state? Wallace never helped us and he never will. And another thing. When Wallace talks about southern people he doesn't include blacks as southern people. He doesn't consider blacks to be people at all. It's the mentality left over from the days of slavery when black people weren't considered human. That's a mentality that revolutionaries are trying to kill and pigs are trying to keep alive.

They think up tricks to divide the people and keep us in line, keep one half of the people fighting the other half. They try to give whites a couple of favors, some crumbs off the table of racism, a table built by slaves. But they're running out of crumbs. Whites are also being murdered by Nixon in Vietnam and Cambodia. There aren't enough jobs and our schools are shit. Whites are being oppressed more and more. Since there are no more crumbs, the government feeds us lies. They want us to defend their government and in return they don't give us a job, or decent housing, or food, or even the freedom to walk the streets without being intimidated by the pigs. No, in return they give us an American flag--a piece of cloth that no longer represents the people of this country, but represents the pigs. We can't feed our children a piece of cloth. The cloth is not even useful as clothing. It can only be used as a blindfold.

When we open our eyes and raise our voices the ruling pigs never deal with our complaints. They can only call us names and make excuses for not paying attention. When they call us subversive, we say right on. We are subversive to the bullshit going on. When they call us nigger-lover, we say right on. We will stand with our black brothers and sisters against the descendants of the slavemasters and against all those who practice racism. When they call us violent, we say right on because we know we can't pray our way to freedom, we've got to fight. When they call us unpatriotic and un-American we say fuck you--it is you capitalist pigs who are anti the American people and anti the people of the world and it is you who has made America into a fascist monster that is destroying the world.

And we say to you:
HUMANITY WON'T BE SATISFIED UNTIL THE LAST PIG IS HUNG WITH THE GUTS OF THE LAST CAPITALIST.

GI'S TELL NO LIES

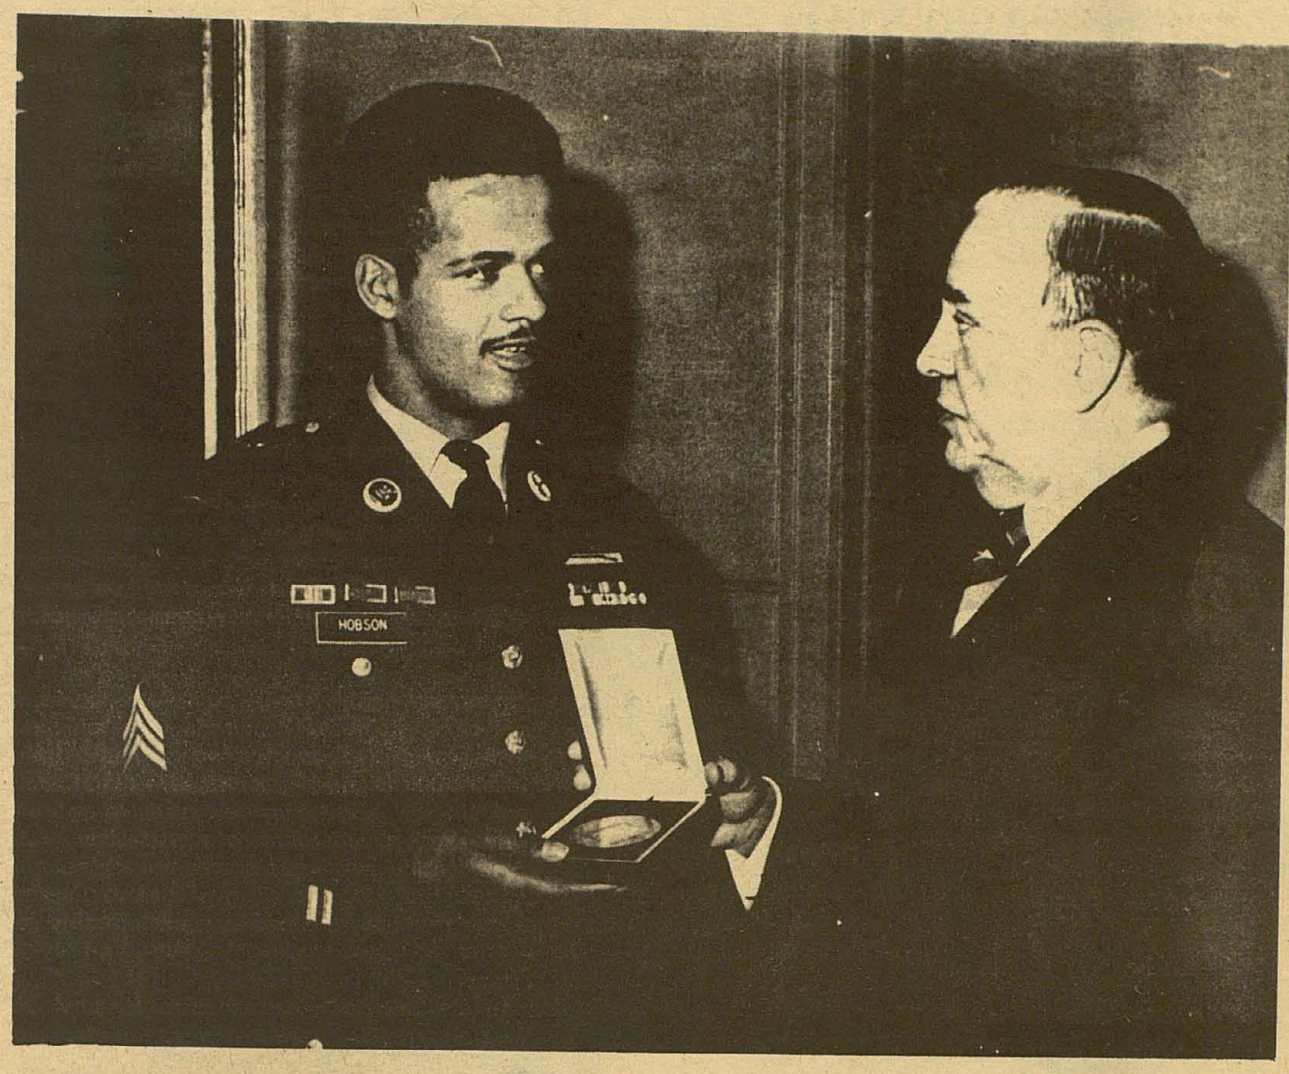
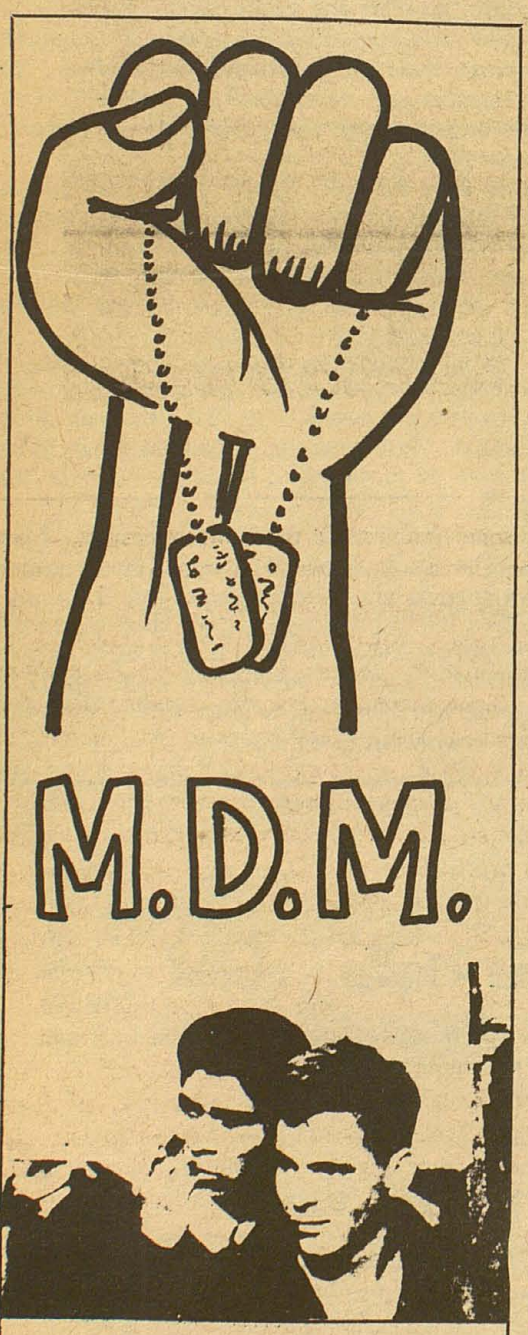
The ship 'Richard B. Anderson' left San Diego, California for Vietnam on May 27, but before it made it out of the harbor it had to turn around and come back. You see, someone put something in the gears which knocked out one of the two engines. It'll be 8 weeks and $200,000 to repair the ship. The pig brass has charged 3 sailors with sabotage even though they don't have any evidence against them. Then the brass had the nerve to say that they couldn't find any motive for the sailors to fuck up the ship.

Well, pigs, let us hip you to something! Most of the brothers in the service are against the war and don't dig the brass! That's why the ship was fucked up and it could have been sabotaged by any one of the peons. Dig up! The brotners are against the war and are using any means necessary to end it. Right On to the brothers! Support them! Free them!





THE BROTHERS FROM MOVEMENT FOR A DEMOCRATIC MILITARY UNDERSTAND THAT ONCE THEY BREAK OUT OF THE RACIST BAG, THEY CAN GET TOGETHER AND FIGHT THE REAL ENEMY, THE PIG BRASS AND CAPITALISTS, WHO USE US AS CANNON FODDER.

hero not for hire

A lot of brothers think that if they go into the service they can get away from all the problems we face everyday, or that they can get their heads straight and become a man. That's what the pigs tell us, and that's why judges often give us a choice between jail and the army. But anyone who's in the service now knows that it's just a bunch of bullshit. There's the same problems like racism and being pushed around a lot by the pigs and much more. There's lots of examples of brothers who have joined up to "straighten out" but ended up more fucked up than before they went in.

There's James Hobson. Remember when he came to Chicago last January? He was a national hero because he won 2 bronze stars and 6 other medals over in Nam. What made the pigs so happy about Hobson becoming a hero was because he had been a leader of the Vice Lords on the west side. In fact, he had been sent to jail 43 times by judge Epton. He didn't like the pigs, but he decided to go straight- to play by their rules- so he joined the service. Then he went to Nam and did a good job for the pigs. He didn't have anything against the Vietnamese, but he fought because that's how us young guys are supposed to grow up in America.

When he came back to his old turf, pig Daley and everyone loved him. Dig it, he played by their rules and did everything the pigs way. He was a National hero. But James Hobson didn't like the racism in the service and began to speak up about it. In fact he bagan to do more than talk he began to act. The way the pig brass keeps the peons divided is by race, and as usual, the blacks got the worst deal and being a National hero didn't make it any easier for James to accept racism. So when he stood up for his people and said that black GI's weren't going on manuvers in Germany until some of the racial problems were settled. The same pigs who had made him a hero slapped him into the stockade for "disobeying a direct order." The next day he was charged with conspiring to commit murder because somebody had tossed a grenade into an Army club. Now, even Judge Epton thinks that he is innocent. He's being framed because he stood up for his people.

James Hobson isn't unusual- we all know of examples. He got out of his gang-banging thing and tried to play by the pigs rules. And when he did good for them (by killing Vietnamese) they rewarded him. But the minute he stood up to the pigs they cracked him. So what good did it do him to join the service? He couldn't forget about being black, and he wouldn't be pushed around so he's still in jail. He is like another leader of the Vice Lords, Bobby Gore, who is in jail on a phoney murder charge too. And for the same reason- he was trying to help his people out. Dig that when we stand up to the pigs (whether we wear a uniform or not) they are going to try to step on our necks. We've all got to stick together- black and white, civilian and GI to fight the pigs and stop playing by their rules

Viva Zapata!

CHICAGO CHICANOS MOVE WITH THE SPIRIT OF ZAPATA

EMILIANO ZAPATA (RIGHT) AND PANCHO VILLA WERE LEADERS OF THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION. THE PIG TRIBUNE DARED TO SAY ZAPATA WOULD KILL FOR AN ELGIN WATCH. ZAPATA SAID: "SEEK JUSTICE FROM TYRANNICAL GOVERNMENTS NOT WITH YOUR HAT IN YOUR HAND, BUT WITH A RIFLE IN YOUR FIST." THATS WHAT ZAPATA AND VILLA DID! RIGHT ON!

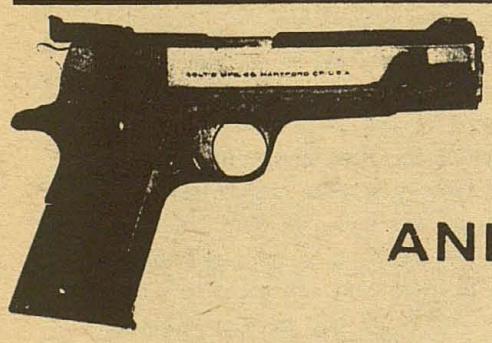
Emiliano Zapata is a true people's hero. He was a fearless leader of the Mexican revolution. (Today the Mexican revolution has been sold out, like the revolution in the United States, and there are new revolutionaries in Mexico today.) Because he was such a great fighter and loved his people, the Mexican peasants, so much, he is still a hero of the Mexican people and of revoutionary people all over the world. He would not give up the revolution even though the government tried to buy him off with land and a ranch. When they tried to buy him off, Zapata said, "We do not want the peace of slaves, nor the peace of the grave...We want peace based on liberty, on political and agrarian reform promised by our political creed; we are incapable of trafficking with the blood of our brothers and we do not want to bones of our victims to serve us as a staircase to public office." Dig it!

On May 24th, the pig Chicago Tribune ran an ad for Elgin watches (also pigs). This racist ad said: "Your new Elgin is better than the Elgin Zapata was willing to kill for in 1914." What a crock of shit! Zapata killed the pig government's troops to help his people get more land and to build a better life for all the Mexican people. He wouldn't kill for some puny ass Elgin watch.

The pigs try to steal the people's heroes and make them out to be chumps or thieves. That's one of the ways they fuck us over--they keep us from knowing about our heroes and leaders. Well, the Chicano (Mexican-American) brothers and sisters decided that this was the last straw--they couldn't stand to have their culture, their language, their heroes put down any longer. So they got together and planned a march on the Tribune to set the record straight about who Zapata was and what he stood for.

So on June 6th, over 1,000 brothers and sisters almost all Chicano gathered in Harrison Park. One of the things that happened was that the name of the park was changed from Harrison to Zapata Park. Right On! And then we began the long march to the Tribune Building. The march was led by signs carrying Zapata's name. The beautiful thing about this demonstration was that there were young and old people, men and women, brothers and sisters from 18th Street and from South Chicago. We hipped the Tribune to the fact that Chicanos were no longer going to be put down by the pig press.

This isn't going to be the last that pigs hear from La Raza (The Race). There is a strong revolutionary movement growing among brown people in this country, and its finally reached Chicago---Dig it! There are a whole lot of Chicanos in Chicago who are tired of being ignored and discriminated against. Chicanos are moving the same way as black people--trying to unite their people and move them in a revolutionary direction.



PIECE NOW!

AND KNOW HOW TO USE IT!

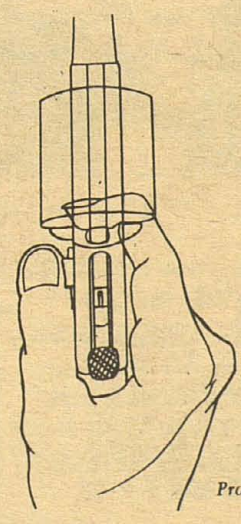
A gun is no better than a club if you don't know how to use it. The best way to learn how to shoot is to go shooting with a sister or brother who knows how to shoot. We learn how to shoot by shooting. When you first start, it is important to group your shots. Don't worry about the bullseye until you can get a tight group. To do this you have to hold the piece correctly, breathe right, sight and aim, and squeeze the trigger. No matter what kind of gun you shoot these things must be done right if you want to hit anything.

Never pull or jerk the trigger. Just steadily increase the pressure on the trigger until the gun fires. Anything but a smooth trigger squeeze will throw the shot off the bullseye. Breathing moves the gun. When you are on target take a deep breath and let about half of it out, hold the rest. This will give you accuracy in shooting. If you don't fire the gun right away, relax and let out your breath and start the cycle again.

Finally you have to have the sights right. This means that the front sight and the rear sight must be aligned with the target. With the exception of most shotguns, all guns are fired this way. The front sight is aligned in the center of the rear sight. The target is made to sit on top of the front sight like a pumpkin on a post.

The sight picture won't always look like this but once the idea is understood with practice you will become accurate. Shotguns usually don't have rear sights so you have to look down the barrel to sight and feel the gun. Holding the piece right comes through practice. Just remember to be relaxed and comfortable. If you tense up the accuracy is gone. The steadier the gun the more accuracy. This applies to all kinds of guns, handguns, rifles and shotguns. Finally, don't cross your thumbs when shooting an automatic pistol with both hands. The action of the pistol will break your thumb.

Proper sight alignment results from aligning front sight at six-o'clock position on bull's-eye and centered within notch of rear sight.



Proper grip on handgun.

BUST INFO - - - CUT THIS OUT!!!

A PIG IS A PIG If you are stopped by the pigs you don't have to answer any questions except your name and address. (It's not a bad idea to have a cover address of a straight person who will verify that you live there.)

But remember--refusing to answer a pig's questions will probably make him mad enough to arrest you on a city disorderly charge or some other nonsense.

IDENTIFY THE ENEMY If the person who stops you is in plain clothes ask him to show his identification. Remember his name and badge number so you can give it to your lawyer.

STOP AND FRISK A pig can stop and frisk you if he thinks you have a weapon or if you are doing something "suspicious." If you are carrying a gun he's going to tell the judge that he saw the bulge. If you are holding dope don't throw it away if the pig can see you. Eating it is the best idea.

HOUSE SEARCH Supposedly pigs can not search your house unless they have a warrant or unless they are in "hot pursuit" of a criminal. If the pigs come to your house, ask if they have a warrant. If they don't you don't have to let them in. If they say they have a warrant tell them to slip it under the door or somehow to get it to you without your opening the door. If you have dope don't let them see where you get rid of it.

CAR SEARCH If a pig stops you while you are driving get out of the car right away with your license and registration. This way he cannot say that when he stepped up to the car the dope or weapons was in "Plain View."

PHONE CALLS After you are arrested and booked you have the right to make phone calls. If you don't tell them your name and address and let them fingerprint you the booking process is not complete and you will not be able to make your phone calls. You should be entitled to make enough calls to get a lawyer and to get bail money. If you can't get in touch with a lawyer directly, call someone who can call a lawyer for you.

DO NOT MAKE ANY STATEMENTS OR SIGN ANY STATEMENTS ABOUT THE CRIME. IF THE PIGS START QUESTIONING YOU TELL THEM YOU WANT YOUR LAWYER.

BAIL If you are arrested on a city offense the bail is normally set at the pig station at $25. If you are arrested on a state misdemeanor charge which is punishable by only a fine the bail is $50. On misdemeanors where you can get prison time the bail is $1000 which means that you have to put up $100.

On some misdemeanors and all felonies the pigs will not set bail. A judge will set the bail and in order to be released you have to post 10% of the amount.

COURT If you are in custody when you are brought before a judge ask him to set a recognizance bond, which means that you won't have to put up any money. This will depend on the crime you're charged with, whether you've ever been arrested before and how long you've lived in Chicago.

You have the right to a continuance on your first time up in order to get a lawyer. Anytime the judge is going to force you to trial and you don't want to go, ask for a jury trial. They will have to transfer your case to another court.

Don't trust the Public Defender. He doesn't have time to prepare your case. Always have your own lawyer. If you don't have money for a lawyer call Rising Up Angry. 472-1791
